YUM! YUM!
When the gravy's on the buckwheat and the sausages are hot,
When the steam is floating upward from the shining coffee pot,
When the cook stirs up the batter that was set the night before,
When little Bob and Clara smack their lips and yell for more;
Oh, 'tis then a man is always feeling pretty near his best—
If there isn't trouble with the works beneath his vest—
And it's then he ought to humbly thank the Lord for what he's got—
When the gravy's on the buckwheat and the sausages are hot.

"There's a fragrance that comes floating from the pancakes on the plate
That should nerve a man to action—make him strong for any fate.
There's joy, there's inspiration in the smear on Bessie's chin,
And it's good to see dear Willie as he scoops the sausage in,
And what sweeter music is there than the flapping, slapping sound
That busy cook produces as she stirs the stuff around?
Oh, each precious, luscious mouthful quickly finds the proper spot,
When the gravy's on the buckwheat and the sausages are hot.

New Veilings at Mrs. L. V. Davis's.

Water and grass are scarce articles in Washington precinct.

Miss Della Bullett, who has been seriously ill with fever, is somewhat better.

Silas McDonald, for many years Constable of Union Township, died Sunday at Ripley.

Mr. C. T. West, after spending several months at Denver, Col., has gone to Dodge City, Kansas.

Mr. Joseph Peed of Mayslick, and by the way one of Mason's thrifty farmers, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Mary E. Holmes of Washington, who got a fall last week, is now thought to be in a very serious condition.

Mr. Walter B. Pfister of Chicago arrived yesterday, having accompanied the remains of his father to this city.

Captain J. J. Greenleaf of Lexington is here helping our military company prepare for the encampment at West Point, back of Louisville.

We are showing a very select line of dress pins, cuff pins and baby pins, in gold, gold filled and gold plate. Neck chains and lockets, cuff buttons, belt pins, hat pins. Ladies' and gentlemen's chains. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Manager Outten has made a contract with the Yellow Ribbon Fair Company of Aberdeen for the Indian Band to furnish the music during their Fair. The Indian Band is coming right to the front as a musical organization and their services are in demand.

Rev. H. E. Roseberry and wife have arrived and taken up their residence in the pretty little Parsonage of Mitchell's Chapel in the East End. Rev. Roseberry has assumed charge of affairs of the Church and will henceforth look after the interests of the congregation.

Mrs. June Gregg, an expert instructor in Pyrography and leather burning, will be at the Central Hotel with a display of her work to meet those interested in the art in view of organizing a class. Be sure to see her work Friday and Saturday, know her terms and arrange for a class.

From the Presbyterian Church down Market to Front, if you will but notice, you can see any number of people with bowed heads and eyes intently fixed upon the ground. They are not praying people, neither are they specially devout—they are simply on the lookout for that lost $300 diamond.

Yesterday we saw a lady in Third street up-end a tiny piece of glass with her dainty foot. No doubt visions of a Klondike find fitted before her, but it soon passed and an expression of disgust overspread her handsome face when she discovered it was only glass and not a rare gem.

Mrs. Dr. A. G. Browning has spent the summer amid the delightful scenes of her girlhood in Old Virginia.

During her absence the Doctor has been a recluse—"all the living day consumed in meditation deep"—and in fact his beard had grown to such dimensions that he had somewhat the appearance of Rip Van Winkle.

However, he received a letter the other day informing him that his wife would join him on a certain date. In anticipation of the happy event he sought the aid of a tonorial artist and was soon spruced up like a sixteen-year-old.

Then another letter came that the home-coming of his better half had been extended to a much later date.

Now the Doctor is bemoaning his lonely condition, the expense of fixing himself up and the loss of his hirsute.

Miss Mary E. Holmes has the white satin slippers worn by the beautiful Miss Harriett Sellman of Cincinnati when she was married to Colonel Marshall Key of Washington in 1816. They are perfectly preserved and very small. These were the parents of Colonel Thomas M. Key, Chief of General McClellan's Staff, Army of the Potomac.

WINTER & EVERETT.

JOHN WILTON CUNNINGHAM.
John Wilton Cunningham, son of the Rev. J. W. Cunningham of St. Louis, died the latter part of August at Camp Reliance, a health resort near San Antonio, Tex.

Deceased was related to Dr. H. K. Adamson of this city.

He was born in Louisville in 1868, and went to St. Louis in 1875.

He had won quite a reputation as a painter, many of his productions being considered masterpieces. He had studied art five years in France, and while there his work was exhibited in the Paris salon.

His death was due to an affection of the lungs from which he had suffered for some time. Besides his parents, he leaves four brothers and one sister.

SAINT CHARLES SOLD!

Will Be Converted Into a "Home" For Maysville Elks.

The St. Charles Hotel property—known lately as the Brooks House—was last evening sold to Maysville Lodge No. 704, B. P. O. E. The purchase price was practically $8,750, of which $2,250 is to pay for a complete heating plant.

It is the intention of the Elks to remodel and use a portion of the building for a Lodge and Club Room, the remainder to be rented.

ARRESTED FOR FORGERY.

H. C. Bruce of Vanceburg Now in Jail at Covington.

A stranger giving his name as H. C. Bruce and his home as Vanceburg is locked up in the Covington Jail charged with forgery.

W. G. Snyder of the firm of W. G. Snyder Company, furnace and stove dealers of Cincinnati, notified the police that Bruce had given him a check in payment for a bill of goods purchased Saturday. The check was on the Farmers and Traders Bank of Covington, calling for $275, with the name of T. W. Sandford & Co. signed to it.

The bill of goods Bruce selected amounted to $186.20 and the difference in the check and the amount of the bill, $88.80, was given Bruce in the shape of a check on the Citizens National Bank.

After Bruce had left Snyder suspected that something was wrong and he called on Mr. Sandford, who at once pronounced the check rank forgery. The forgery was done with one of Sandford's own printed checks.

Bruce did not confine his operations in the check line to the Snyder transaction, but also worked the same scheme on M. H. Levy, a musical instrument dealer at 528 Madison avenue, Cincinnati. He purchased a $225 piano from Levy, tendering a check similarly signed as the one tendered Snyder.

It called for $250, and Levy in return gave Bruce his check for $25.

When searched at headquarters the Levy check could not be found. He told the arresting officers that he had torn it up.

Bruce had at several times visited the office of T. W. Sandford & Co., where he had made inquiries concerning a residence he intended buying, and it is thought that while on one of these visits he managed in some way to secure several of Sandford's checks, which he afterward signed, using Sandford's signature.

A Remarkable Record.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many millions of bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Mrs. L. V. Davis's Fall line of Millinery is now complete.

The Synod of Kentucky will convene at Cincinnati October 12th.

Mr. John T. Parker of East Fourth street, who has been quite sick for several weeks, though feeble, is able to be out.

The marriage of Miss Lucille Fuller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Fuller of Washington City, to Lieutenant Charles Gilpin occurs today at Hot Springs, Va.

Colonel Morris B. Belknap, Republican nominee for Governor, says his work in the present campaign will not be from the stump, but that he will make a personal canvass of the state.

The C. and O. is putting up buildings for machinery and tools preparatory to the rebuilding of the abutments on Kennedy's creek, where the recent washout occurred. It is quite likely the construction will be for a double track.

Cartmell extracts teeth without pain.

Mrs. L. V. Davis is now prepared for the fall trade with a choice line of Millinery, and confidently invites an inspection of correct styles.

William S. Dayton, aged 30, and Miss Emma Kiekaden, aged 25, both of Mt. Olivet, were married Sunday in Covington.

Never compare prices without comparing quality; you will find more difference in quality than you will in price. See our monuments and markers before buying elsewhere. MURRAY & THOMAS.

Distress After Eating Cured.

Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

D. HECHINGER & CO
Bear This in Mind!

When you are going to spend $15 or more for a Suit or Overcoat consider the kind of Clothing you can choose from in our house. Here you find the choicest productions from the celebrated manufacturers, Stein-Bloch, L. Adler Bros., Michaels, Stern & Co., Rochester's most famous custom clothiers. Whilst the styles are many, there are not too many of any one style, and all patterns so exclusive that it is just like wearing a high-class custom suit.

OUR CHILDREN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING

Will interest all mothers that have boys to clothe. For fear you miss it don't miss us on Men's and Boys' Shoes. No sensational low prices, but the kind that if they don't give reasonable good wear we make "good." The names of W. L. Douglas and Hanan, both of which lines we sell, are so well known that we need not go into details.

W. L. DOUGLAS Range $2.50 to $3.50
HANAN Range $5.00 to $6.00

Don't miss securing a few of the Manhattan and Faultless $1.50 Shirts at $1.15 cash; they won't last long.

THE HOME STORE. D. HECHINGER & CO.

An Explanation!

Don't judge our stock of underwear, as to quantity—by what you see on the first floor. Moving has begun and the confusion it entails—behind the scenes, the convenience of the shopper will not be disturbed, makes it impossible to give the space to the muslin undergarments that our stock justifies.

One of each style, in the lower priced garments, you will find as you enter the store, all the more elaborate underwear is upstairs, which does not necessarily imply a climb for you, as accommodating sales women are ready to bring the garments to you for inspection. The threadbare expression "What you don't see, ask for," fits this occasion.

The variety is broad—whether you desire garments that are simple but good, or whether you wish the lacey fluffiness that is woman's delight, you will find it in this ample collection, at the lowest prices for which such excellent and handsome garments were ever sold. And there are no shortages—the lowest priced kinds are here in full supply. You never find picayune, catch-penny features in any Hunt Sale. For instance of the 50c Nightgowns alone there were 100 when the sale began. That's fair provision, sure enough, isn't it? And unusual value as they are you'll agree, as dozens of women already have, that our $1 Nightgowns are a still better, more masterful bargain.

MORE THAN 400 NIGHTGOWNS..... (50c to $3.40)
MORE THAN 200 PETTICOATS..... (50c to $7.40)
MORE THAN 125 DRAWERS..... (25c to $1.40)
MORE THAN 75 CHEMISE..... (39c to $2.40)
MORE THAN 250 CORSET COVERS..... (15c to $1.75)

Mr. C. O. Hoffman, who has been ill at his home in Louisville for several months, is slightly improved. While his condition is regarded as serious, it is believed he has a chance for recovery.

At Lair Station, in Harrison county, at a picnic Saturday night, Chester Laytard shot and dangerously wounded Lon MacDuffy. There had been bad blood between the men for some time, resulting, as a matter of course, in the shooting.

Joseph Heiser Post, No. 13, G. A. R., will give a bean bake and Campfire at the car barn next Friday and Saturday nights. There will be no admission charge at the gate. There will be music and a good platform for the young folks to dance on.

"WAY DOWN EAST."

William A. Brady's production of "Way Down East," which will be presented at the Washington Opera-house on Friday, September 18th, is a story of homely country life in England, and it has all the virtues and simplicity in the telling to make a great and enduring play. There are types of character in it which are familiar to every one. The play has moments of real dramatic intensity, and a genuine heart interest. It is a thoroughly wholesome play. Scores of Ministers have used its theme as a text, and hundreds of others have given it their unqualified endorsement. Seats on sale Wednesday morning at Ray's Drugstore.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

CHICAGO candy manufacturers have filed suit for $20,000 damages against the Candy Makers Union. They allege that the Labor organization entered into a conspiracy to ruin their business, and seek damages for the losses sustained by reason of the strike of candy makers.

"SAVOYARD, himself a life-long Democrat, paints this picture of Judge REDWINE, and it deserves a place alongside the best of the 'Old Masters.'"

"Judge D. B. REDWINE is the chief conservator of the peace of Breathitt county. He is the man who executed the parliamentary Czarism of the Music Hall Convention of 1899. There were some three hundred contests referred to the Committee on Credentials, and instead of a separate vote on contests from each county, the vote was had on the whole thing, en bloc. That is Redwinism. What if the Fifty-eighth Congress were to do a thing like that—dispose of every contested seat at one roll-call? The country would stand aghast. TOM REED never dreamed of such a thing. It was the most high-handed parliamentary outrage ever perpetrated in this country. Judge REDWINE showed that he had a perfect contempt for the rights of men who did not agree with him. He is Circuit Judge. He lives in Breathitt county. Breathitt county is hell. Where the monkey is the Priest, what must the laity be? If REDWINE is the Circuit Judge and HARGIS County Judge, what must a Justice of the Peace be in that community? If CALLAHAN is High Sheriff, what must a Constable be? If RALEIGH only deserves the Penitentiary, what sort of criminal is it that deserves the halter in Breathitt? No wonder MARCUM, COCKRELL and COX were murdered in cold blood. When justice is on a journey or asleep murder thrives."

GOVERNOR BECKHAM's official list of pardons, published in The Courier-Journal in an attempt to show that Governors BROWN and BRADLEY surpassed his record, contained but seven pardons for Breathitt county, when as a matter of fact 29 pardons have been issued to the followers of HARGIS and CALLAHAN. The official Beckham list in The Courier-Journal contained only these names:

Pat Holland, J. E. Fugate, James Stamper, Goodloe Hudson, Joe Raleigh, Harry Jones, Theo. McCree.

The Louisville Herald has unearthed 29 Breathitt county pardons issued by Governor BECKHAM as follows:

Pat Holland, A. J. Hays, Jr., Chas. Brumbach, Curtis Jett, Goodloe Hudson, Daniel Bowman, Charles Little, William McIntosh, Patrick Hallen, James Mullins, Joe Raleigh, Theo. McCree, James Cole, James McLain, Jeff Spicer.

Harry Jones, Richard Combs, W. A. Toubla, George Baker, Arch Vires, James Stamper, J. E. Fugate, R. Eldridge, L. L. Patrick, Ezekiel Spencer, Zack Nicks, George Gabbard, J. N. Simpson, Daniel Cole.

In view of this discrepancy of 22 pardons in a single Democratic feud county between Governor BECKHAM's own list and The Louisville Herald's disclosures it is not surprising that the pardon record is a closed book and that The Herald's representatives are kicked out of the Statehouse when they go nosing about.

A Purgative Pleasure.
If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell of Houston, Tex., says: "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache, etc." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

It is not the least bit surprising that the Goebelites are displeased with Colonel BELKNAP's opening speech.

BROTHER BOB PERRY of The Winchester Sun-Sentinel rises to remark that correct history cannot be made during the lives of the people who make it, and then goes on to say that when we have passed away then, and only then, can a correct history be written of the period in which we have lived.

When history records Kentucky events of 1899 and for the years following it will be read with sorrow and shame. In 1899 the Republican nominees for the state offices were elected. The Democrats instituted a contest. By fraud the legislative committee to hear the contest was made up of Democrats. It was well known what this committee would do. The hearings before it was a farce. Nearly two hundred thousand people had voted for the elected candidates. They were indignant. At no period in our history was the feeling so intense. They felt that their right of suffrage was being taken from them. Extravagant talk was indulged in. Men who were in sympathy with both sides of the contest were at Frankfort in large numbers. Serious trouble was expected at one time. A train load of people came from the mountains and held a meeting on the Statehouse grounds where they passed resolutions protesting against the robbery that was ready to be committed. CALEB POWERS, the Republican Secretary of State, was largely instrumental in having these men come to Frankfort. Some five days afterward he was on his way to Louisville to arrange for other men to come from the Western part of the state when Senator GOEBEL, the Democratic candidate, was assassinated. A round-robin of the Legislature session was held and GOEBEL was declared Governor and BECKHAM Lieutenant-Governor. The matter was taken to the Court presided over by Judge CANTRILL and the action of the Legislature sustained. Judge PRYOR and Captain ELLIS of the State Election Commission resigned, and POYNTZ, the remaining member, appointed two other Democrats. They went through the form of hearing the contest for the minor offices and decided for the Democrats. Then followed indictments against Governor TAYLOR, CALEB POWERS, JAMES HOWARD, HENRY YOUTSEY and others, charging them with the assassination of WILLIAM GOEBEL. TAYLOR left the state. POWERS and YOUTSEY were arrested and HOWARD surrendered. These are in brief the most important events that occurred during that history making period.

Pilots on the lower Mississippi complain that the beacon lights at Michael's Towhead and Dog Tooth Bend do not burn. They are said to be important lights.

The new towboat Diamond, being built for the Diamond Coal Company, will be a model in construction. It is said she will be the best of her size ever built.

The big Sprague is said to be working to perfection on her trip to New Orleans. She is on the crest of the rise which took her from Cincinnati some days ago.

No towboats that brought coal to Cincinnati on the rise have succeeded in getting back to Pittsburgh. Steubenville harbors the Charley Brown, the boat farthest North.

John P. Hines bought the steamer Racket and barge at Calhoun from Harth & Grainger in Caseyville for $2,000. The boat will be used in towing ties from Rough river to Louisville.

Captain William Agnew, who was stricken with paralysis while on duty on the steamer Courier a short time ago, is reported as recovering nicely by those in charge at the Marine Hospital.

The Wheeling Register says: Rivermen and others will be treated to a novelty in steamboats when the new Greenland, owned by Captain Gordon Green, makes its appearance in the local harbor about the 20th of this month. The finishing touches are now being put on the boat, which is lying at Marietta, and it will be one of the finest crafts on the river, as well as the most serviceable one. The peculiar feature about its construction is the side wheels and the stern wheel stern. The packets came in Thursday with splendid freight trips, and the passenger lists were larger than for many a day. Many passengers arrived to attend the state Fair, coming from various river and back country points. The ferry-boats Buckeye and Emily did a rushing business all day transferring passengers to and from the Fairgrounds.

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
"B. L. Byer, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors call bilious dysentery, and could get nothing to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief," says B. T. Little, merchant, Hancock, Md. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Mr. H. D. Knight has returned from a visit at Hopkinsville where he met several ex-Mason countians, among them Mr. Oscar Cushman. He says there was a big crowd at Munfordsville Saturday as he passed through.

Hamilton College, Lexington, this year has on its Faculty three accomplished women from this city and county—Miss Frances Lusk Frasee, who is Assistant Instructor in History and Preparatory Department; Miss Anna Belle Brough, Instructor in Drawing, Painting, Sketching, China Decoration and Wood Carving, and Mrs. Harry C. McDougle, Secretary of the College and who also has charge of the office.

"IMPOSSIBLE, for you to enjoy motherhood," says the doctor. Sometimes he qualifies the statement, and says: "Impossible without an operation." Yet both these "impossibles" have been made possible by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Many times the hindrances to motherhood are to be found in womanly diseases or weaknesses, which are perfectly and permanently cured by "Favorite Prescription."

This great medicine for women cures irregularity and dries debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"I wish to add my testimony to hundreds of others as to the value of Dr. Pierce's medicines," writes Mrs. Ida M. De Ford of Latona, Hubbard Co., Minn. "I have doctor with a great many physicians—some specialists; have twice been in a hospital for treatment. My case has been regarded as a hopeless one, and they knew not what the trouble was. Heart was bad; stomach all out of order; tired out; severe pains in all parts of the body; sinking spells, and nearly every ailment a woman could have. I took many a bottle of 'patent medicines' without effect. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and ten months afterward I gave birth to a ten-pound boy. All physicians had stated as a fact that I never could bear a child. Both the baby and myself were strong, and I got along splendidly—thanks to your medicine."

The Genuine vs. Counterfeits.
The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. For blind, bleeding, itching and protracting piles no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Wisdom in Family Life.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is constantly demonstrating its ability and experience in advising business men concerning money matters in the home. For instance,

The late Archibald N. Waterhouse, of Philadelphia, who died suddenly last Friday, held policies amounting to $20,000 in the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. The terms of insurance under which these policies were issued were so arranged that his widow will receive at once $20,000 in cash and an annual income of $2,000 for twenty years, and if she is living at the end of that period she will receive $20,000 in cash making the total amount received under these policies $40,000 on which the premiums paid by Mr. Waterhouse amounted to only $97,492.30.

(From the Philadelphia Record, Nov. 13, 1904.)

In writing for terms on similar policies, state what you would like to receive in cash at the end of limited payment period, amount you would like your beneficiary to receive in event of your death, and give your age.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its popularity all these years, you will be thankful that we called your attention to Boecher's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectation and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25¢ size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75¢. At Henry W. Ray's, next door to Postoffice.
